The Invisible War is a 2012 documentary written and directed by Kirby Dick about sexual assault in the U.S. military. It received the U.S. Documentary Audience Award at the 2012 Sundance Film Festival. It has also been awarded a Peabody Award and Emmy Awards for Best Documentary Feature and Outstanding Investigative Journalism, and was also nominated for Best Documentary Feature at the 85th Academy Awards.

Judith Villa and Tom Slater, Department of English, along with April Daras, Department of Theater, arranged for a viewing of the The Invisible War at 6:30 p.m. at McVitty Auditorium in Sprowls Hall on Thursday, February 12. The documentary will be shown in conjunction with the staging of Tammy Ryan's Soldier's Heart at Theater by the Grove, which will open the next night.

Theater professor Carrie Cole and production dramaturg Hannah Simon will be at the screening to help create a framework and provide context for a post-screening discussion. There will also be snacks, soda, and attendance vouchers.
