RUBENSTEIN PUBLISHES INTRODUCTORY PHILOSOPHY TEXT

Posted on 12/9/2016 10:27:58 AM

Eric Rubenstein, Department of Philosophy, published an introductory text, Philosophy: An Eye on the Whole (Kendall Hunt, 2016).

This introductory text teaches students what philosophy is by having them engage in philosophical reflection and debate on a wide range of topics. Written in a lively, casual style that is accessible to students, it introduces them to central issues in philosophy and pairs easily with primary texts or more advanced coverage of subjects as instructors may desire. Topics include Cartesian skepticism, personal identity, distributive justice, ethics, reason and faith, death and suicide, and free will and determinism, among others.
