Washington Jan 1st 1864

Hon Thomas White

Dear Sir, I failed to see you that night I was in town and I now find that a letter from you in my favor would be of great service if you will be so kind as to write to me by return mail and send along a line addressed to the Republican members of the Senate recommending me to them as <sup>a</sup> suitable person to fill an office and that you believe my election would be in accordance with Barry's wish. If you could send me such a letter immediately I think I can make a point provided an organization is effected.

Your true friend
