Executive Chamber,

Harrisburg Pa. 10 July 1865

My dear Sir

Your kind letter is before me I fear we cannot make the proof required and will wait - After your interview Mary was perfectly satisfied and is like her self - She will do nothing important and will reply her indifference -

Miss Conner is better and will go with me on a little excursion this week -

I cannot tell you my dear Judge how much we are indebted to you - You do not realize yourself how kind you have been to us -

Miss Conner asks to be remembered to you and I remain

Yours

Thomas White

Very your friend
W. G. Conner
