You've never had a better chance

IUP's 1989 football schedule will feature seven home games, a number almost certainly unprecedented in Indian history and quite possibly unsurpassed nationally.

This means the Indiana community and IUP's alumni and fans have a better chance than ever to "Back the Best!"

Of this season's team, head Coach Frank Cignetti says, "We now have more good players than at any time since I've been with the program."

That's saying something, because Cignetti's three seasons as coach have been highlighted by two Pennsylvania Conference championships and by NCAA Division II national playoff bids in 1987 and 1988. IUP was the only Eastern team to be ranked in the NCAA II national top ten in each of the past five seasons.

Challenging these credentials at Miller Stadium this coming campaign will be four Pennsylvania Conference West entrants—Lock Haven for the September 9 season opener, Clarion, defending champ Shippenburg for Homecoming, and Slippery Rock; Division I-AA Howard University from Washington, D.C.; Bloomsburg, a Pennsylvania Conference East team that often has been nationally ranked, for Parents Day; and Southern Connecticut.

Hosting them will be an Indian team that will be led by veteran offensive and defensive lines and all of its 1988 starting receivers, the latter led by Pennsylvania Conference West 1988 Rookie of the Year Andrew Hill, pictured on the cover. Making things interesting for fans will be battles to see who will succeed graduated standout players at quarterback and running back, among others.

IUP football fans have a lot to look forward to this fall—exciting on-field action, the pageantry and parade precision of the acclaimed IUP Marching Band, the fun and good times of a university campus on an autumn afternoon—all among the best you will find anywhere. Season tickets ensure you a "ringside seat" to "Back the Best!"

You'll want to be there for it all!

Get your tickets now

Buy your tickets now to make sure that you, your family, and your friends get good seats for the 1989 campaign. Section C and most of sections B and D at Miller Stadium are reserved. The entire south stands may be filled on a reserved basis for Homecoming and Parents Day.

IUP will play seven home games this season, and you can enjoy all of the action for $55 per season ticket. You help yourself two ways. Season tickets save money—single game reserved seats are $8 each, $9 for Homecoming. And you insure the same good seat for all home games. Order today by completing the application in this brochure, enclosing your check, and noting any special requests you may have.

We will do our best to meet all requests, but you can best be assured of satisfaction if you place your order by August 1.

If you have any questions, call the Department of Athletics at (412) 357-2751.
